CLARENCE ELVIS STEED

August 5, 1937 - April 23, 2013

Clarence became a member of the Chesterfield County Fair Association in 1983 beginning his many hours of volunteer service to his community and Chesterfield County. He volunteered with the Chesterfield County Police Department at the police academy and from 2001-2012 he was part of the Motorist Assistance Team. An active member of the First Baptist Church Centralia, Clarence held many positions from Greeter to raising his voice on Sundays with the Mass Choir. In 2012 Clarence was recognized by Chesterfield County's Volunteer Recognition Program for having amassed 10,000 volunteer hours. His talents extended beyond his volunteer service as he became a member of the James River Woodcarvers Association and was responsible for their participation with the Fair. Clarence retired from DuPont. He was married to the late Shirley Mae Allen Steed and is survived by his two daughters, Deborah and Angie, four grandchildren, and many other family members and friends. Clarence served on the Fair's Board of Directors from 2007 until his death. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him, and his dedication to volunteering is an example for everyone to follow.

OTIS E. "BUSTER" GREENE

April 6, 1935 - June 21, 2013

Buster worked gate security at the Chesterfield County Fair for several years. He was a police officer with the Chesterfield County Police Department where he served as Sergeant of Detectives and Lieutenant of Forensics from 1956 to 1992 before retiring. Buster was a life member of the Manchester Volunteer Rescue Squad and was extremely active with the Virginia Association of Volunteer Rescue Squads. In 2005, he was inducted into the VAVRS Hall of Fame and was also a life member of that organization. He was an active member of the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church in South Chesterfield. Buster was married to the late Mary Anna "Lady" Greene and is survived by a daughter, Mildred "Beppie" Zuban; son, Robert "Reg" Greene; two grandchildren and one great-grandchild. We will all miss seeing Buster riding around our fairgrounds, checking the gates for any problems, and generally helping to provide a safe environment for our fair attendees.

From the PRESIDENT

As a young boy growing up in Chesterfield County, one of my fondest memories is of coming to the Chesterfield County Fair. It wasn't a large fair but it was a place where you would see people you hadn't seen in a year. There was also the large track where the races took place and sometimes a high school football game was played. The event that I looked forward to seeing most of all was the Chesterfield County fire truck competition. Well, the old fair grounds are gone but we've been in our current location since 1989. This year we will be celebrating our 100th Fair and it will be our largest fair ever. One hundred years is quite an accomplishment for a fair run by volunteers. It is my wish that we have a large turnout for this special year and new memories will be formed for the young and old alike. It has been a great honor to be the president of the 100th Chesterfield County Fair. We look forward to our next century of fairs.

From the GENERAL MANAGER

Welcome to the 100th Chesterfield County Fair. I am so proud to be able to say that our association has been in existence for this long and we are not showing any signs of slowing down. In fact, each year the fair continues to grow. Following our theme - 100 Years: Honoring Our Past, we have a special display in the Arts and Crafts Building featuring pictures, newspaper articles and other memorabilia from our past fairs. Be sure to stop by and take a walk down memory lane.

Several new features have been added to the fair this year. First off, the option of buying tickets online has been added to our website. Also, Mobility Concepts, LLC will be providing strollers, wagons, wheel chairs and electric scooters for rent, making the fair more accessible to everyone. We will showcase GXW Pro Wrestling and an Extreme Bull Riding Competition sanctioned by SEBRA. There will be a nightly karaoke contest leading to a final sing-off. New to our music line-up will be The Pizazz Band (Beach/Top40/Rock), Jeremy Staubus Band (County) and American Pride (Statler Brothers Tribute). To highlight some of the new attractions we will have the Tiger Encounters, Woody's Menagerie Zoo and the Rowdy Rooster Puppet Show who will delight kids of all ages.

Heritage Village has expanded to include not only Civil and Revolutionary War displays but Brahma Bulls and oxen wagon rides, soap making, woodcarving, weaving and a violin maker to name some of the places to stop. Don't miss the antique tractor and farm equipment display, watch the racing pigs, and see the Star Family Circus. I will have a full line-up of must-see attractions so come early and plan to stay late.

There is so much we offer at the fair but our roots go back to the days of farmers bringing livestock and crops to the fair for display and bragging rights. As you can see in our Arts and Crafts Building, the tradition continues with residents entering vegetables, flowers and handwork in hopes of winning that prized blue ribbon. This year you will notice a change in our ribbon design to reflect the county seal and show the year in which we were established.

I hope everyone attending the fair can see the love and hard work that went into putting on such an array of entertainment and exhibits. I would like to thank all our volunteers and board members who have worked tirelessly on the fair. My hope is that everyone attending the fair makes special memories and will return for many years to come, because we are a family tradition built by families proudly representing Chesterfield County.

Last August, with a beautiful glittering crown on my head, I grabbed my little brother Brennan's hand and leapt with joy into the cab of the iconic County Fair Ferris wheel. Swaying gently, we arced through a magical summer night that carried the hypnotic call of the midway mixed with strains of bells and merry-go-round music. I will never forget the smiles of the Chesterfield County Fair goers as they ogled Civil War memorabilia, stood within feet of man eating gators, and tested their strength in the arcade games, all the while wolfing down Fair feasts like huge helpings of meatloaf, fried Oreos, and gastronomic delicacies too numerous to mention, washed down with my favorite limeade and gallons of sweet tea. I still had to pinch myself to realize that my wonderful fortune in being crowned Miss Chesterfield County Fair Queen was not just a happy dream as I navigated those giant circles on the Ferris wheel. Little did I know that my happy journey as Miss Chesterfield County Fair Queen would be so filled with treasured moments, which have made this year the best of my life.

First, the feelings of excitement and adrenaline rush of the pageant with amazing beautiful and talented girls continued throughout the entire week of the Fair. The Fair brings awe and wonder to a world that has become too often jaded and gray. I think one of the best parts of the Fair experience is not just the quality of entertainment, but also the fact that here everyone is welcome and wanted regardless of economic status, infirmities, abilities, or disabilities. I can think of no comparable venue that takes such pains to respect and celebrate differences of all kinds. It is truly one of the last great melting pots of America, but its traditions are so vital that they have already lasted a century and will continue to endure for centuries to come.

My competition did not end in August as I continued full circle around my year as Miss Chesterfield County Fair Queen. I spent an utterly memorable weekend at the Virginia Association of Fairs annual meeting at the Homestead that I will remember for the rest of my life. Not only did the magnitude of the accomplishments of the volunteers from across the state completely floor me, but I also appreciated so much the support and love that was shown to me by every member of the Chesterfield County Fair contingent that attended and prepared for the Virginia Association of Fairs. I cannot begin to express my gratitude for the flowers, encouragement, well-wishes and enthusiasm from people like Julie, Pat, Jan, Kenny, Bill, and many others. Most of all I want to thank my incredible director, Brenda White, who provided me with an endless supply of encouragement and intuitive advice. I was proud of my performance at the Virginia Association of Fairs in being named First Runner-Up in a field of some of the best representatives of the fair groups across the state. I was truly humbled by the crowd support that I received from Chesterfield County and how kind the board members were, not only to me, but to every member of my family, oldest to youngest. I can never thank you enough.

Now I come full circle toward the end of my reign like a Ferris wheel that drifts gently to the conclusion of its momentum. As I prepare to leave home for my first year in college I bid a bittersweet goodbye to a reign that brought me friendships and fortune, confidence and cotton candy, and a dream fulfilled but which will never be forgotten. To the new Miss Chesterfield County Fair Queen, get ready for the ride of your life!

Fondly,
Savannah Morgan Lane

PRINCESS PAGEANT

MICHELLE KUZMICK PHOTOGRAPHY

Chesterfield Royalty gained another sibling in 2012 as the Chesterfield County Fair presented its first “Princess Pageant” for young ladies, ages 3-16. Four age groups with 40 beautiful contestants graced the stage of L.C. Bird High School on Saturday, August 25, 2012 for this “Celebrate Good Times” event.

As this was not a “Toddlers and Tiaras” type of pageant, the judged categories included: fun/personality wear and an evening/dressy wear competition. All the contestants were presented with an opening number t-shirt to wear.

Our four judges had tough decisions to make with all the loveliness that found its way upon the stage that day. Congratulations to all the winners!

Additionally, Reed founded James River Government Club as his Capstone Project for the Center for Leadership and International Relations. Government Club is a forum for student political debate, and the club hosts current political leaders such as former Chairman of the Chesterfield Board of Supervisors Dan Gecker. He is a 2013 National Coca-Cola Scholar, and James River High School's Outstanding Graduate. He will be attending Yale University in New Haven, CT studying Ethics, Politics, and Economics with aspirations to attend law school and become a lawyer.

SAVANNAH LANE

Savannah Lane is the daughter of Dennis and Brigid Lane. She is also one of five children—one of two sets of twin girls, plus an eight year old brother! Savannah is a senior at Midlothian High School. She is the reigning Miss Chesterfield County Fair Queen. She is also the reigning Miss Northern Virginia and has been a titleholder in the Miss Virginia Outstanding Teen program, notably as Miss Blue Ridge Outstanding Teen 2012 and Miss Chesterfield Outstanding Teen 2011. Her service platform, the “Power of Performance,” includes both the creation of original shows and motivational speaking to students about the value of the performing arts. Savannah additionally serves as a drama teacher to economically underprivileged youth and was recognized by the Ann Taylor/Vital Voices organization as an “ANNPower” Fellow, winning an opportunity for training last June in Washington, D.C. with internationally acclaimed global leaders and White House staff. Savannah recently was named a national “ANNPower” grant winner. She is passionate about promoting American ideals and was the 2012 regional, state and East Coast Region's Fleet Reserve Association's “Americanism” essay contest winner and in December was named the inaugural “We the Student” Essay challenge winner by the James Madison Montpelier organization, the Richmond Times Dispatch and the American Constitution Spirit Foundation. She won Virginia's “Outstanding Interpretation” and the second highest national award for her original dance choreography last year in the PTA/PTSA Reflections contest, and has placed first in the State of Virginia in the dance/choreography category once again in that contest this year and is currently awaiting national adjudication for that piece. A dance captain for both her school's dance team and show choir, Savannah has studied with the Radio City Rockettes in their Summer Intensive program for the last two summers. Savannah will go on to study political science at the University of Virginia this fall.

100 Years: HONORING OUR PAST

The year was 1911. The first transcontinental airplane flight from New York to California took 82 hours and 4 minutes, Proctor and Gamble unveiled Crisco® shortening, AND the Chesterfield County Fair opened for its first year. According to an article in the Richmond Times-Dispatch Southside Supplement of Sept. 29, 1938, the idea for hosting such an agricultural fair originated with Senator John B. Watkins. Local farmers were asked to put on a corn show exhibit at the courthouse building in the fall of 1910. Under the direction of Senator Watkins, the exhibit “proved so gratifying and the attendance so encouraging, it was proposed to have another show the following year.” Thus the Chesterfield County Fair began. Senator Watkins was selected as the first president of the Chesterfield County Fair Association, a position he held until his death in 1931. Our first fair was held Oct. 25-26, 1911, at what is now the Chesterfield County Government Services Complex encompassing the Mimms Loop and Lori Road areas. Admission to the fair was 50¢ for adults and 25¢ for children and membership in the association was $1.00.

As far back as our first fair, the association has had the support of the Chesterfield County Board of Supervisors. Senator Watkins asked the Board to “appropriate certain funds to help make this fair a memorable agricultural exhibition” per the Times-Dispatch of June 11, 1911. Throughout the years, many of our fair presidents and managers have requested and received monetary support as well as guidance, manpower and encouragement. In 2011 the Board of Supervisors recognized the association for the fine work that has gone into providing the residents of the county and beyond with a first-class fair.

The popularity of the fair grew rapidly. In 1936, a horse show was a lively attraction at the half-mile race track. During the Depression in 1938, the Work Project Administration (WPA) provided workers who built a 500-seat stadium near the track and who also made improvements to the track. Both projects made the horse shows and harness racing very enjoyable events. The wooden grandstand was replaced with a concrete structure in the 1960's, but that one was demolished in 1993 to make room for the county's Utilities Department building.

COURTESY OF CHESTERFIELD HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Space in and around the courthouse area was used for the many exhibits which kept growing as the different granges tried to outdo each other. Eventually more land was needed and new buildings were added. By 1938, the fair had “a fine agricultural building, an educational building, three live stock buildings, a horse barn, and lunch booths of various kinds” according to the Richmond Times-Dispatch South Side Supplement of Sept. 29, 1938.

The 4-H Clubs have been a special part of the fair for many years. As part of the 4-H experience, future farmers would raise their livestock and bring them to the fair for judging. Afterwards many of the cattle were purchased by local food stores with the 4-H member receiving the proceeds. A 1938 ad for the Sanitary Grocery Company, Inc. (forerunner of Safeway) listed beef pricing for baby show beef at 23¢ a pound for prime rib roast and 29¢ a pound for a porterhouse steak. Today members of local 4-H Clubs still enter items such as produce and crafts for judging although not the cattle! They set up displays in the Arts & Crafts Building and many mornings 4-H members can be seen sprucing up the fairgrounds before opening time.

Another important part of the fair has been our food. Wood’s United Methodist Church, from the Matoca area, was one of the first food vendors. They would set up behind the old jail and use a washtub to keep the soft drinks cold. Inmates could be heard hollering down at the customers waiting in line. Money raised at the fair would help pay for programs sponsored by these organizations. The old jail still stands near the county museum. The Beach Community Grange has been our longest running food vendor. Their popular chicken and dumplings is still a fair favorite.

MARY CHALKLEY
AT AGE 10

The fair started because local farmers wanted a place to proudly show the items they raised and a place to come together and meet with friends. Throughout our 100-year history, we have proudly continued this tradition. Our Arts & Crafts Building is brimming to capacity each year with canned goods, jellies, vegetables, needlework and art work. Hundreds of items are entered for judging, and the goal is the same – everyone wants that first place blue ribbon! Much hard work by many volunteers goes into setting up these displays coordinated by Mrs. Mary Chalkley. Mary’s involvement with the fair began at the age of 9 and by age 12 she entered her Black Angus heifer for judging. She was the association secretary for almost 40 years before becoming our historian. She still holds that position as well as that of coordinator of the exhibits in the Arts & Crafts Building.

But the fair isn’t solely about our agricultural heritage. It is a place for people to relax and enjoy being out and participating in activities. Featured in 1949 were softball games, a fifty-yard dash, sack races, three-legged races, and a tug-of-war. As recently as 2009, we had a hot dog eating contest, watermelon seed spitting contest and a water balloon toss. The carnival atmosphere is and has been a big part of everyone’s thrill in attending the fair. Whether it’s riding the Ferris wheel, seeing the fireworks or watching motorcycle races, we have had so many different opportunities for everyone to find what interests them most. As Chesterfield Choice said in August, 1999, “Today’s Chesterfield County Fair is a convergence of traditional agricultural and live-stock displays, modern midway games and rides, and contemporary exhibits and booths that feature everything.”

Entertainers at the fair have spanned a variety of styles although country music has been the most prevalent sound. We’ve featured Porter Wagoner from “The Grand Ole Opry”, Grandpa Jones of the TV show “Hee Haw” and Tom Wopat of “The Dukes of Hazzard”. Other performers who appeared on our stage are Ronnie McDowell, Chris Cagle, and Darryl Worley. We’ve had Sheb Wooley of “Flying Purple People Eaters” fame, Joey Dee and the Starlites with “Peppermint Twist” and Joe Nichols performing “Brokenheartsville”. More recently, our fairgoers have loved the sounds of

SWAYING TO THE MUSIC

Keith Henderson and his “Illusions of the King”, and many local favorite groups such as Southland Band, Flashback, and Casper. For many years one night was reserved for gospel music but we also devoted time to blue grass, rock and roll, and karaoke. We’ve actually held karaoke contests although we haven’t found our first “American Idol” contestant yet.

Music has not been the sole activity showcased at our fair. On Wednesday nights, wrestling was a big draw with crowds coming to see Chief Wahoo McDaniel, Ivan Koloff or a title match between Bambi and Peggy Lee Leather. And we’ve got exciting news – wrestling will be back this year!

Bingo, one of our most popular attractions, can be found just inside the main gate. Sponsored by local non-profit organizations such as the DAV or the Bensley-Bermuda Rescue Squad, bingo has always been a crowd-pleaser and one of the last tents to empty each night. The Chesterfield Tractor Club has been a long-time supporter. Their exhibit of antique tractors and farm equipment, hands-on activities for the kids along with barrel train rides, and a demonstration on how to make cornmeal (with free samples) is always a must-stop place for kids and parents. The model train exhibit in the Arts & Crafts Building is something everyone thoroughly enjoys, and for many years we have had a Civil War Exhibit. This feature has now evolved into our “Heritage Village” where people can see memorabilia and learn about the war from our costumed presenters. The village also offers demonstrations in soap making, violin making, Indian bead working, and blacksmithing to name a few of the exhibits. Of special interest to the children has been our array of livestock sometimes showing poultry, rabbits, pigeons, goats and guinea pigs. At the Child’s Farm in 1999, little ones could dig for potatoes, gather eggs, and milk a cow or scoop poop

(all make-believe in a farm-like setting). That year we also presented “Jurassic Journey” with over 40 full-size replicas of dinosaurs. We’ve expanded our animal attractions to include wildlife educational exhibits such as Kachunga and the Alligators and this year we will have white Bengal tigers.

In earlier days, school children would take a field trip to the fair. Mildred Anderson Cros-tic, at the age of 84, shared her memories of attending the fair around 1938. She wrote about the school exhibits of handwriting, art and sewing; of fishing in a stream of water for a prize and throwing darts at balloons; of watching the harness racing and seeing the Ferris wheel. Our records show that Mildred was a member of the association through 2004. Other county residents remember schools closing early on Friday so everyone could go to the fair and students receiving free tickets for the fair. Our association has continued this link with the schools by providing an opportunity to display students’ artwork. We also support the schools by offering scholarships to residents to continue their education. The scholarship program began in 2000 and we have been honored to help many students reach for their dreams. In 1990, we started our "Cover Contest" with students from the county schools submitting drawings for the cover of our annual fair catalog. Our first winner was Gabrielle Kori Griscom from Thomas Dale High School.

Parades have also been a way for the schools to participate in the fair. The Chesterfield News-Journal in Sept. 1978 reported "All the junior and senior high school bands in the County and their auxiliary units such as majorettes, drill teams and flag corps will march in the yearly parade. Each band participating will receive a $100 award which it may use to supplement its own musical program. About 75 busloads of students are expected." Obviously we no longer have the bands and auxiliary units in the parades due to their sheer number. However, we do have parades featuring our pageant winners, antique tractors, local Boy and Girl Scouts, and several car clubs as a few of the entrants.

THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE CURRENT FAIRGROUNDS IN 1989

Around 1975 we began sponsoring the "Miss Chesterfield County Fair" Pageant. Young ladies nominated by the different high schools in the county competed for the queen's title. Currently any young lady between the ages of 17 and 21 may enter (no school affiliation required), and the winner represents our fair at the state pageant during the January meeting of the Virginia Association of Fairs. We have also had a "Little Miss/Little Mister Chesterfield County Fair" Pageant and a "Men in Black" Contest. Last year we had our first "Princess" Pageant with four groups from ages 3 to 16.

The fairgrounds have changed over the years. For 75 years, the fair was held in the area currently occupied by many of the county buildings. As the population of the county grew, the space available for the fair became less. The Board of Supervisors decided in late 1987 that parking for the fair was too limited, and thus in 1988 the fair was moved to the Chesterfield County Airport. Federal Aviation regulations did not allow the Skywheel (80 feet high) and the Super Loop (60 feet high) to be used at the airport. Traffic back up on Route 10 was a major problem. The county quickly designated the property across from L. C. Bird High School as the new fairgrounds, and the fair has been held there since 1989.

The Exhibition Building where we have displays by local businesses and county agencies was constructed by the county in 1994, and the association added the Arts & Crafts Building in 1998. The fairgrounds are owned by the county and leased to the association. In 1997, the main road within the fairgrounds was named "Whiteman Way" after James Whiteman a long-time county employee and ride inspector for the fair. The flag pole cluster at the main entrance was erected in 1996 as a community project with involvement from our association. Many other improvements have been done at the fairgrounds solely at the expense of the association. In 2011 more lighting was added along the back road of the grounds and major culvert work was also completed. All the electrical work at our current location was laid out and installed by Bill Tilghman and the employees of Tilghman Electric. Bill has been with the fair since 1966, and while he may not go up in the bucket truck anymore, he is the one who still makes the lights burn.

Traveling to the fair used to be done by horse and buggy. Families would pack lunches, set out to travel 15 miles from Midlothian or Ettrick possibly, and arrive at the fair with the children full of anticipation for a day filled with fun, games, food and general wide-eyed thrills. Once cars replaced the horse and buggy, parking at the fair was handled by the Virginia State Police (c. 1940s). A policeman would take your keys and then park your car in an open field (county offices now occupy this space). Currently, parking is mainly at L. C. Bird High School but in 2012 we opened Gate #4 at the end of Courthouse Road to provide additional parking. This added parking is well lit and shuttle service is provided into the main fairgrounds.

Our original fair was 2 days in length. Over our 100-year history, we have operated the fair between 2 and 11 days, but we have settled in on a 9-day fair since 2004. While our admission price over the century obviously has increased, we are still a bargain at $8 for adults, $5 for seniors (60 and up), $3 for children 6-12, and free for children 5 years and younger. With paid admission, you have access to all the exhibits and entertainment throughout the fairgrounds. The midway and many of the rides around the grounds do have a separate cost. Again this year we have partnered with Martin's Food Markets to offer a discount on wristbands for the midway rides. Additionally, we offer County Employee Day and Military Appreciation Day.

As everyone is well aware, Mother Nature can be a friend or foe of any outdoor event. In 2011, Hurricane Irene swept through Virginia leaving many local residents without power and facing damaged houses and downed trees. On Friday, August 27th, the fair opened as scheduled but reports on the severity of the hurricane increased, putting Richmond right in her path. Vendors prepared as best they could. Many vendors, who would normally stay in the campgrounds, were moved to the Exhibition Building. Even our fair president at the time, Julia Williams, spent the night in that building. Irene did her best to break our spirit and she did succeed in keeping us closed all day Saturday. But in true fair fashion, by Sunday morning volunteers and vendors were on the grounds cleaning up limbs, putting up tents and generally helping each other. We were able to open on time Sunday under generator power with full power restored around 7 PM.

For those patrons who have been coming to the fair for many years, the growth in the fair experience should be noticeable. The number of food vendors, the quality of the entertainment and exhibits, and just the general feel of the fair has been enhanced over the years. Recently we added the shuttle service from our back parking lot, developed shuttle stops to help fairgoers get around the grounds easier, and added many tables and benches so everyone can sit and enjoy the sights and sounds of the fair. Most of these tables and benches were purchased at auction when the State Fair of Virginia liquidated their assets in 2012.

And if you are reading this history, you are probably holding one of our fair catalogs. The oldest catalog that we have is dated 1930. We have copies of a few catalogs from the 40s and 50s, but our real collection begins around 1966. The catalog is a wonderful chronicle of our history and it provides so many memories. In 2012 we produced our first full color catalog to rave reviews. This year we are truly hoping that the expanded catalog will provide a walk down memory lane for many of you who have traveled this path with us.

Now for those good at math, you're probably wondering "If the fair started in 1911, how is this the 100th fair?" Well, there was no fair in 1918 due to the influenza pandemic. We don't know what the other missing year was, but we've been told it was a war year. If anyone has information about our lost year, please let us know. Or, if you have pictures, stories or any memory you would like to share with us, we would love to hear from you. You can contact us through our Facebook page or via phone or email (see contact information elsewhere in the catalog).

In closing, this flashback into our history would not have been possible without the help of Liess van der Linden-Brusse with the Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia, Pat Roble at the Chesterfield Museum, and our own historian, Mary Chalkley. The newspaper articles, pictures and wealth of information they provided was amazing. But the biggest thank you of all needs to go to the Officers and Boards of Directors who guided the Chesterfield County Fair Association over the years. Elsewhere in the catalog you can see a list of former presidents and general managers who put in so much time and effort. And lastly, thank you to all our tremendous volunteers and loyal supporters. Such an undertaking as this is not possible without you. As we prepare to celebrate our 100th fair, we look toward our next 100 years with anticipation, hope and a desire to continue making memories.

CCFA Secretary 2013

TRUE DEDICATION

Dedicated – that's the best way to describe our three long-time fair volunteers pictured here. G.B. Spencer, Mary Chalkley and Bill Tilghman have devoted more than 45 years each to the Chesterfield County Fair Association. They've seen the fair change and yet still hold true to its roots to "promote agriculture, education, industry, business and the general betterment of Chesterfield County and its rural heritage." From all of us who know and have worked with these three outstanding individuals, thank you for making our fair the best fair in the state!
